

DOVE THROUGH SKYLIGHT WITH WRISTS SLASHEDDesperate Man Plunged from Window in Grand Union.

Servants employed in the Grand Union Hotel were cleaning silver in a room on the ground floor early today when there came a crash through the skylight, just above them, and as glass fell on their heads the body of a man hung for a moment on the iron beams and then fell, limp and apparently lifeless, to the stone floor.

The servants, screaming, ran in every direction. The police came and the man was identified as having registered as "H. S. Schultz, New York," yesterday afternoon. The man's arteries were severed at both wrists and it was plain that he had first tried to end his life by that means, and had then plunged from the window.

After registering, the man called for writing materials. He is believed to have mailed three letters early last evening. He retired to his room, and about 10 o'clock he rang the bell and asked for brandy and soda. He gave the hallboy 25 cents to pay for the drink, and it is said that his last word went for a tip.

The man's room, which was on the fourth floor and the window of which overlooked the skylight, was smeared with blood. On the table lay a knife which was also bloody. The police believe that the man had cut his wrists early in the morning, but that the pain was such that he raved about his room, half mad, and then threw himself from the window.

In the man's pockets were cards that may lead to his positive identification. One of these read:

"Henry Schultz, advertising agent, Harper's Weekly."

When the man was conscious for a few minutes the police questioned him.

"What's your name?" was asked.

"Henry Schultz," he replied.

"Where do you live?"

The man shook his head. No question could make him tell his address. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital. It is more than likely that he will die.

At the offices of Harper's Weekly it was said that Schultz had worked there as advertising solicitor for about a month. He was formerly an insurance agent, but the recent investigation made his business unprofitable. He has not been at work for the past two days and sent word by his son, a lad of twelve, that he was suffering from a throat affliction. Schultz was a quiet man, and no one about his place of employment ever dreamed that he would attempt to kill himself.

BARNEY IS EASY AFTER HE BEATS BOOKIES

All the Bowery Knows Feeney, and He Gave Up $1,000 in One Night.

Philanthropist "Barney" Feeney, of the Bowery, got back the $1,000 he dispensed at "Pat" Farley's resort on Tuesday night after winning $2,000 on the Sullivan horse race. "Barney" got it back by betting on Optician, Marty Morris and Dandelion, and again was the Bowery festooned with a display of extravagance in the region of Grand street.

The victory of the Rye horse started "Barney's" luck and fame. He had received a large commission to place on Wex, which Rye beat, but Barney laid against Wex by transferring the commission from one pocket to another and then adding a goodly pile of his own, bet both on the Rye gelding, owned by "Christie" Sullivan. Barney has faith in the Sullivan family and declared after the race that he couldn't back anything but a Sullivan horse, no matter if a Sponsony were in the race. His faith netted Barney a clear $3,000 and the good news preceded him to the Bowery.

Outside of Farley's, inside of Farley's, and within hailing distance of Farley's, awaited "Tom," "Dick" and "Harry," "Bill," Tatters, "Connie" Worn, "Mike" Broke, and "Bill" Down and Out. They knew Barney and knew him to be good for the proverbial "touch" when flush. If Barney had it they all have it.

"Tom" wanted a new suit of togs. "Dick" wanted the rent money and "Harry" was expecting a new addition to the family. There were others who wanted just the "prize," but all needed the coin on some pretext or other. Barney met every one of his friends smiling.

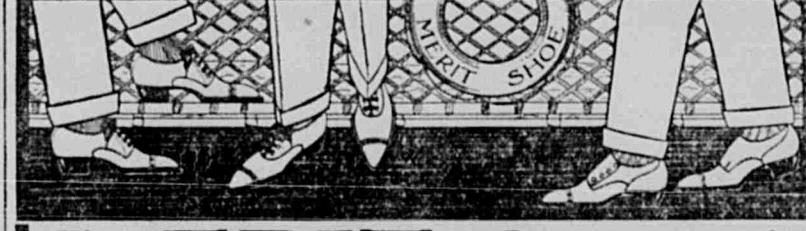

"Of course, it's yours while I've got it," was his invariable reply, and between "touches" Barney set 'em up, until the front of Farley's bar looked like a bargain-counter rush. At midnight Philanthropist Feeney had disposed of just eleven hundred dollars, and still he wasn't tired. He was in the best of humor throughout the ordeal. At the stroke of 1 he inscribed a sign, "Relief Afforded Here to the San Francisco and Bowery Sufferers."

Another hundred went after the sign.

was put up, and then Barney went home in a cab. He had a bit of his winnings left when he reached the track yesterday and went to the bookies with a prayer on his lips and a hope in his heart.

"If I could win three thousand a day I could afford to give away two-thirds of it at night," said Barney. He had knocked down fifteen hundred dollars when the races were over.

"My luck keeps up," said Barney today, "all the boys on the Bowery will be rich."

CASTRO TO RESUME
OFFICE NEXT WEEK.

Amnesty Grant Expected to Follow
Venezuelan's Restoration to Presidency.

The Associated Press announced today that it had learned from a source closely allied to the Venezuelan Government that President Castro will resume control of his office on May 23, and on that day will grant a general amnesty to political prisoners.

President Castro recently retired, temporarily as it now turns out, from the Presidency and handed over the direction of affairs to Vice-President Juan Vicente Gomez. May 23 will be the seventh anniversary of the beginning of the revolution, ending in the battle of To-custo, where Castro defeated the forces of Gen. Andrade, thereby winning the Presidency.

JAMES H. MOORE ILL.

James H. Moore, of Chicago, brother of William H. Moore, of No. 4 East Fifty-fourth street, has been confined to his bed since Sunday at the Holland House with a severe attack of nervous prostration. It was announced last night that he would be well enough by Saturday to go to Chicago.

Both James H. Moore and his brother are prominent in financial circles. They are the controlling factors in the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway.

LA SAVOIE SPOKEN.

SIACONSET, Mass., May 18.—The French liner La Savoie, from Havre for New York, was in communication by wireless telegraph with the station here when sixty miles east of Nantucket. Lightship at 8:50 A. M. today. La Savoie will probably reach her dock about 5 A. M. tomorrow.

A Material Difference.

MUSHROOMS are delightfully palatable and healthful, yet some species of Toadstools so closely resemble the toothsome Mushroom as to make it dangerous to experiment with uncertainties. And so it is with Castoria and its imitations. Keep the Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher ever in your mind's eye as the Mushroom. And be as particular to remember the counterfeits, substitutes and "just as good" kind as the Toadstools. There may be a resemblance in the package, but the results obtained are so widely different as to make the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher the important feature when buying Castoria.

Why should not our preparation be superior to all other children's remedies? Have not eminent physicians from the Atlantic to the Pacific testified to its perfection? Castoria that bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is the acme of chemical art as applied to a child's medicine.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

On the first score—Fit—we can say this: Our garments are designed and cut by the most modern methods known to the art of clothes making; intricate alterations are never necessary, a slight shortening of a sleeve or trousers is probably the most serious change we ever have to make.

On score two—Style—you may be certain that these suits possess every attribute of fashion. There are radical and conservative models for men of all tastes.

On score three—Comfort—the fabrics are light but staunch; every device is employed to lessen the weight of these suits for Summer service.

HUNDREDS of people purchase shoes in our stores in the course of a day. Now, everyone has a different idea of the kind of footwear that is best suited for them. And yet, we are able to go to our shelves and pick just what they want. That fact speaks for the assembled greatness of our showing and diversity of styles.

The Frazin Shoe
at $3

Is the most comfortable shoe that is made. This is especially true of the low shoes; made of a fine grade of soft elastic leather, the FRAZIN SHOE is nicely adjusted to every curve of the foot, they are truly of comfortable, glove-like fit, without wrinkle or chafe.

Men's: Patent Colt, Demi-Glaze Calf and Tan Oxfords.

The new season's swagger lasts in both men's and women's shoes are indeed an attractive part of our showing. And notice how they are made—the heel and toes do not cleave or slip against the leather, walking is comfortable, and the shoes are of almost indefinite wear.

Women's: Swagger Lasts in Oxfords.

Now, you know how leather has advanced, and how skilled labor is each year being paid more. The question naturally arises, "How can the FRAZIN SHOE maintain its high standard and yet not advance the price?" The momentum of popularity answers that question: FRAZIN SHOES are now made in such vast quantities that we can systematize our factories to the highest economical point, buy the finest output of leathers, employ the most skilled workmen, and still sell the celebrated FRAZIN SHOE at $3.

If arrayed with those of $5 and $6 price-marks you would invariably select the Frazin Bench-Made Shoe at $3.
